

In partnership with parents, Charleston Bilingual Academy exists to inspire world changers through Christ-centered, intercultural, immersion-based education.

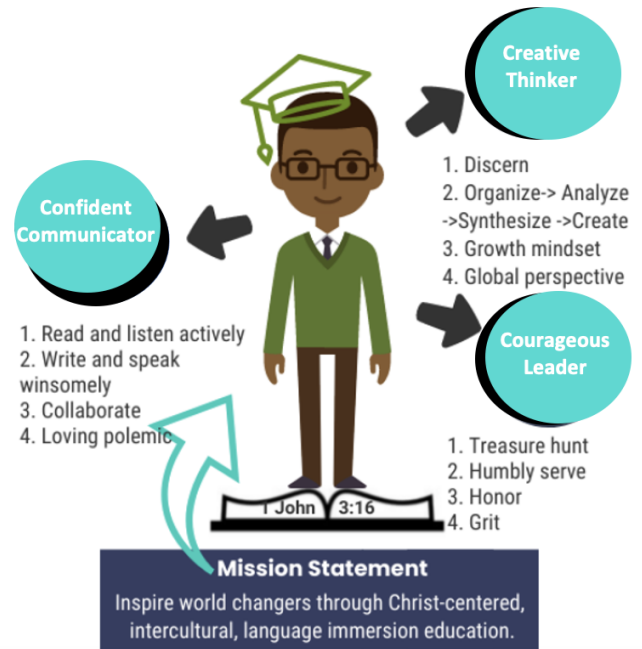

CBA Expected Student Outcomes (ESOs)

CBA strives to graduate students to be:

Creative thinkers who . . .

- Discern: Distinguish between truth, falsehood, and opinion, recognizing that truth emanates from the nature of the Triune God, as Jesus is Truth, and there is no falsehood in Him.
- Organize/Analyze/Synthesize/Create: Organize knowledge, analyze patterns and truths, and construct purposeful meaning with the end goal of innovation with excellence.
- Have a Growth Mindset: Embrace new challenges as they reflect and seek feedback to foster ongoing understanding and growth.
- Develop a Global Perspective: Strive to understand global issues from multiple perspectives and interact compassionately with all cultures.

Confident communicators who . . .

- Read and listen actively: Engage in active listening, reading, and observing with the intent to understand the purposes of the communicator and discern and communicate Truth.
- Write and speak winsomely: Employ best techniques to speak and write informatively, professionally, and persuasively using multiple platforms.
- Collaborate: actively participate in a learning community of individuals working together to accomplish a common goal.
- Love polemic: Seek to understand and address differences in a spirit of respect and love.

Courageous leaders who . . .

- Treasure hunt: discover the Triune God as He purposefully reveals Himself throughout all His creation and the Bible. (Colossians 1:15-18, Romans 1:19-20, Psalms 19:1-6)
- Humbly serve: Employ their gifts and talents to generously love others through serving their needs.
- Honor & Obey: Being quick to forgive and uphold honesty, responsibility, and respect in their words and actions.
- Grit: Courageously persevere in accomplishing tasks and goals, confronting fear and developing their gifts and talents while gratefully acknowledging their abilities come from the Triune God.
